1. Guards along the River Oder are being reinforced, and the entire civilian population has been warned to keep away from the area between the embankment and the river, i.e. the river's meadows, during the winter months when the river is liable to be iced over.
2. A mixed German/Polish commission inspected the frontier zone and its security organization during the week of 12 to 19 December 1954. The Polish members of the commission are believed to have been officers from Stettin. The most senior of the Polish officers was a colonel.
